Torrevieja has become an extremely popular town on the Costa Blanca and has been transformed from an old fishing village into a modern medium-sized town in recent decades. In addition to fine sandy beaches and beautiful promenades, there is a large selection of shops, restaurants and bars as well as a rich nightlife. Thanks to the steady stream of Scandinavian tourists who populate the streets of Torrevieja, the city has a wide range of goods and activities that appeal to Swedes, even though the genuine Spanish is of course in the majority.
