A country house with a lot of charm, in a quiet area and with views to the mountains. Outside there is a terrace with several areas for eating and resting, hammocks at the back of the pool, beautiful palm trees and plants typical of the Mediterranean climate, outside shower... There is space to park several cars inside the plot. The house retains its rustic style with details such as natural stone on the walls and wooden beams, but during the last years have made some reforms to adapt the house with all amenities. In the living room there is a nice fireplace, the kitchen is very practical with an island in the middle and space for small family meals. Both bedrooms have large beds and wardrobes. The bathroom has a bath and plenty of space. There is also a separate apartment with living room, kitchen, 2 bedrooms and a bathroom with a shower.
